FINGER IS CUT OFF BY A HATCHET

While splitting kindling wood at her home, at 249 Washington avenue, this morning, Mrs. Thorsten Jansen cut off the fore finger of her left hand with a hatchet. The finger bleed profusely and it was with difficulty that the attending physician stopped the flow of blood.

As the finger was cut off just below the first joint, the doctor states that it may be necessary to amputate the finger a little further up to cover the bone with skin. The woman missed her aim at the kindling wood and struck her finger fairly with the sharp edge of the hatchet.

REHEARSING FOR PLAY 'AMERICA'

The 200 people in the patriotic spectacle "America" are rehearsing daily and things are running smoothly.

One of the most elaborate scenes is that of the Spanish court of 1492 with the stately king and queen, lovely court ladies, in beautiful costumes, the grandees, Columbus, master of ceremonies, court singers and dancers, the jolly jester and little pages.

The enchanted island is the opening scene, where youth and beauty frolic to their hearts' content. There are many choruses and solos, lots of dancing, several splendid drills and an Indian scene, that is thrilling, where Puritans are scalped and otherwise tortured by the savage chief.

The Amazon girls will enter like a cyclone, and exit like a whirlwind, in the second act.

"America" is to be given under the auspices of the Ladies of the G. A. R. at the Orpheum theatre, Friday, August 1.

COWBOY IS HELD BY POLICE JUDGE

Charles Blair, a "cowpuncher" out of a job, pleaded not guilty in police court this morning to the charge of vagrancy placed against him and when the testimony of the police was to the effect that Blair carried revolver bullets tied in a sack that looked much like a "black jack," the case was continued for further investigation. Blair confessed that he had carried a revolver, but for protection only when he is at work on ranches.

Walter Scott and W. G. Dugan, two men who have been working for the Western Union near Corinne, pleaded guilty to charges of drunkenness and were given light sentences.

A sentence of 10 days or the same number of dollars was given to Ed.
Morris, charged with mendacity.
R. Montgomery charged with drunkenness, claimed to have a job and the judge stated that, if such is the case, he is to be given a suspended sentence. The desk sergeant was questioned to learn if the man is on any payroll. If not, he must serve five days.

M'FADDEN SENT TO HIGHER COURT

George McFadden, charged with burglary in the third degree, was bonded over to the district court this morning by Judge W. H. Reeder following his waiving of his right to a preliminary examination.

When McFadden was arraigned yesterday, he stated that he wished an examination, but this morning he declared he did not understand what was meant by a preliminary hearing and since acquiring that knowledge he decided to waive it. His bond was fixed at $500.

McFadden is charged in the complaint with entering a room in the El-dora rooming house and taking clothing valued at $30 which is said to have been found in his trunk.

WOMAN SEEKS PROTECTION

In the divorce case of Pearl Varley against Richard W. Varley, the plaintiff has petitioned the district for an order restraining the defendant from interfering with her personal liberty.
She states that she has to work for a living at the home of Charles Jensen of Eden and that the defendant has been in the habit of going to the Jensen home to annoy her, charging her with misconduct with her employer.

In an affidavit filed today, Mrs. Varley says that the statements made by her husband are untrue. She relates that on July 23, when she was on her way to the court house to file a paper in her divorce case, the defendant accosted her and stopped the vehicle in which she was riding, and that she had to seek assistance before she could proceed on her journey.

HARBERTSON TO MEET CHRIS JORDAN

Tom Scanlon, manager of Chris Jordan, the victor over Yokel in the match last night in Salt Lake, is in Ogden today conferring with Joseph Goss, manager of the Orpheum theater, and T. B. Kelly, Jack Harbertson's manager, regarding a match between Harbertson and Jordan. Up to a late hour this afternoon it has not been definitely decided whether the match will be held on August 4 or 15. The chances are that the two will meet on the latter date.

Goss will promote the match and it will be held in the Orpheum theatre.
The weight required of the two men to make 155 pounds. Neither man has difficulty in making the limit, as Jordan is practically there and Harbertson is but two or three pounds too heavy.

Because of Jordan's victory over the champion and Harbertson's reputation as a coming champion, the match promises to be interesting.

BOND ELECTION ON TUESDAY NEXT

The city commissioners issued the following appeal to the taxpayers yesterday:

"To the Taxpayers of Ogden City: On Monday next, July 28, 1913, you will vote for or against the issue of $75,000 Water Works Department bonds to be used in building the dam in South Fork Canyon, in order to store sufficient water for the dry months of July, August and September of each year.

"If you vote for the bonds, the Water Works Department will pay the interest on the bonds and also pay the bonds as they mature from revenue derived from the department.

"If you do not vote for the bonds, it will be absolutely necessary to levy an additional special tax of six mills.
If the bonds are voted, the tax levy will be reduced two mills as compared with 1912.

"You are therefore requested to carefully consider the matter before casting your vote.

provements.

Notice to Churches, Sunday Schools, Ladies' Clubs, Etc.

To All City Pastors And Presiding Officers To Whom This Word Shall Come:

We have leased, at considerable expense, one of the greatest of modern oil paintings. The title of the picture is "Lincoln, the Railsplitter and Student." The canvas which is nine feet square shows Lincoln as a youth of twenty-two. He has spent the day at his work in the woods, and as evening falls, starts homeward, holding a book which he reads as he walks.

This wonderful picture has been an inspiration to hundreds who have seen it. It brings Lincoln nearer to us--makes him more real.

The exhibit will continue one more week beginning Monday. There is no admission charged--no obligation in any way to those who come to view it.

The painting is shown under seven hundred watts of electric light, which presents it to best advantage.

So that if you wish you may bring this notice to the attention of your congregations and invite them to see it. We shall make them welcome.

"A FOOLISH VIRGIN."

Editor Standard: The nation is rising to higher ground, to higher aspirations, to a higher community and national life. The men at the head of the government are of a type so understand who they are, or what they are. These men are guiding the ship of state into the true and tried channel, where no snags, rocks or bars are, and where there is no danger to passengers or freight. Their policy is the old-time policy, "The greatest good to the greatest number." Foolish Utah cannot comprehend or see how these things can be and has not a word of gratitude or a thought of praise for what is being done. The state will be benefited by the efforts of the government, regardless of our resistance to better conditions. But how much better it would look if the state would aid, and not hinder the work of betterment at home and abroad.

The press and pulp of the state is so busy lauding and praising itself that no time or thought is given to the mighty events that are revolutionizing the nation. Apparently unconscious of the offense against civility and civil mode of conduct.

What Has Been Done?

Why, the whiskey devil is on the run, and getting greedy to run faster.
The war devil and his "big stick" is in mourning. The greedy protection devil has lost his way and nobody seems anxious to find him. The money devil is indisposed, thinking of going to the hospital, so of course he can see his finish. Customs and trade no matter how well connected, when found detrimental to the work under way, are very politely set aside.

And so on down the line, with not a break anywhere. And all in less than five months. What will the end be?
Utah is sound asleep, or worse, while all this is going on all around her. The whole country is up and doing, getting ready for a mighty revival of righteousness, virtue and truth. The sleep, perhaps, would not be so objectionable, but her nightmares and her dreams are so dreadful that a Stowaway Jackson would halt under the sound of her awful groanings.

Poor Utah! Is there no balm in Gilead? Is there no physician there?
There is, and where least expected.
The supply is unlimited and found in the common people who do the world's work and are the good Samaritans who "bow their shoulders to bear." So dream no longer, and dread no more, but arise to a higher standard in church and state, in commerce and in trade.

Pulpit and Press.

There is not a paper, that I know of, in the state, of any prominence, that is not continually croaking about the misdeeds and mistakes of the administration. So with a pulpiter forever croaking about other pulpits, their errors and their wrongs, and a press trying to out-croak the pulpits, what conclusions can people outside the state come to? Other than that Utah must be a frog pond. Is there no other tune in the state?

Divine Chart.

The divine chart is especially interesting just now with Daniel in the foreground, and there are many Daniels in the land solving perplexing problems and interpreting hard and distressing dreams to the alarm and consternation of the Chaldeans, the astrologers, the magicians and the soothsayers, who, of course, can see that their days are numbered, and their end near. So there is good reason for the doleful
